Dear Gary,

Last night something suddenly came to mind while my mind was on something else. It is of that that I write. That you have been unwilling to respond to things to which I would have thought you would have been anxious to respond is your own affair. This is not a complaint on that score not an enticement nor a effort to get you to respond to the brevity that will follow.

What came to mind was the Ross-Wise The Espionage Establishment. I have the paperback. If you don't have it and have interest and don t want to take time to go to the library, I'll photocopy the appropriate pages for you .

I looked at the index for the African American Institute and then for Katzenbach.

I don't color your reaction or interpretation by paraphrasing it. In fact, all I looked at under Katzenbach, because I had only a few minutes and on reading it felt that sufficed, is the first entry. As I remember it if you have this edition, the institute is on 137 and K 139.

Sincerely,
